

CANTON

May 9

The Canton Flea Market Arts and Crafts Show has become one of the largest outdoor craft markets in the South! This bi-annual event attracts artisans nationally to showcase handcrafted items such as pottery, jewelry and unique arts and crafts. It will be held on the lawn of the historic Madison County courthouse and surrounding areas, and is free to the public. 7 a.m.–4 p.m. cantonsfleamarket.com

GREENWOOD

May 11

Revival on the River will host its annual worship festival for the community to come together as a unified body of Christ to worship, pray and fellowship together at the park near 202 E. Claiborne Ave. People & Songs band will play and various mission booths and vendors will be onsite. Free to the public. 1–9:30 pm. revivalontherivergreenwood.com

JACKSON

May 3-5

Greekfest is a three-day celebration of Greek food and wine, music, dance, family, friends and Orthodox faith. The event offers the opportunity to learn and experience Greek culture. Held at Holy Trinity - St. John the Theologian Greek Orthodox Church in Jackson and will feature authentic Greek cuisine, dancing and other entertainment. Admission is free. greekfestjackson.org

AN EVENING OF WISHES

Kentucky Derby Soiree

May 4

The Country Club of Jackson will host the 2019 Evening of Wishes — Kentucky Derby Soiree benefitting Make-A-Wish Mississippi. The event will begin at 4:30 pm with a live showing of the 145th Run for the Roses, followed by silent and live auctions, best bonnet and bow tie contests, and a Derby-inspired seated dinner. Guests will also hear from wish recipients and their families. Tickets available at eveningofwishes.org.

May 5

The Belhaven Grilled Cheese Fest is back for its second year at Laurel Street Park (1841 Laurel St.)! Come enjoy food, live music and fun for the family. Blankets, chairs and refreshments encouraged! 2–6 p.m. $5 wristband lets you try all the cheesy goodness, including entries in the restaurant and home chef contests. Kids eat free!

May 11

The Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks and other sponsors present the second annual Youth Fish Tales Rodeo. At this event, kids 15 and under participate in free fishing at Lefleur's Bluff State Park beginning at 8 a.m. The event will also feature games and prizes. Participants must bring their own rod or pole, string, bait, tackle box and cooler. mdwfp.org

May 16

The Mississippi Museum of Art will host Dinner & A Movie: Food Truck Festival. This annual event is free to the public and hosts a number of food trucks for attendees to purchase meals. A screening of "Moana" will occur in the evening. 5:30–10 p.m. msmuseumart.org

May 17

The Mississippi Museum of Art will host their Look and Learn with Hoot event. This educational event for children 5 and under features creative play, a hands-on art activity and story time with Hoot, the museum's education mascot. Please dress for mess! 10:30–11:30 a.m., $10 per child. msmuseumart.org

May 18

The Business Association of Midtown (BAM) will be hosting Midfest 2019, an annual street festival from 2–7 p.m. featuring businesses, products, performances, food and drinks that are "Made in Midtown." This event is free to the public and will be held on Wilson Avenue in the Midtown Arts District. madeinmidtownjxn.com

May 18-19

Each May, Jackson's Harley Davidson dealership transforms to host the Trail Of Honor, featuring historically accurate demonstrations of military life in a walking trail through history, from the French and Indian War to the current operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. Free admission and parking. 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Saturday; 11 a.m.–5 p.m. Sunday. trailofhonor.org or 601.372.5770

May 25

Safari Sunset sponsored by BankPlus at the Jackson Zoo will include special JZ Keeper presentations, animal encounters, Splash Pad, rides on the Livingston Train and Carousel, inflatables, face painting and games/activities, plus refreshments for sale. 4–7:30 p.m. Adults $10, Kids $10. 601.352.2580